

Maruni Collection 2014

— Exhibition Information for Salone Internazionale del Mobile in Milan

All Photography by Yoneo Kawabe

The Salone Internazionale del Mobile in the Fiera main exhibition complex will be our second independent exhibition. With Maruni Collection 2014, our seventh annual collection, we will be introducing attractive living room items by Jasper Morrison and Naoto Fukasawa, items that will create high-quality living space. The Roundish sofa designed by Naoto Fukasawa has an impressively cushioned shape that envelops you in comfort. The Bruno sofa designed by Jasper Morrison is a product of skilled woodworking and meticulous structural detail, and provides pleasant seating comfort.

Furthermore, this time, along with the newly designed sofas, we have adopted two types of Kvadrat fabric. The sophisticated and bright coloring of the fabric gives a fresh impression.

Please come to the event and experience these two new creations that have been made using techniques refined over many years by Maruni Wood Industry.
